CLASS HISTORY

On September 5, 1945, the fifty pupils of the class of 1948 entered the doors of Smithville High School as Freshmen. Under the leadership of Miss George, now Mrs. Condry, we elected the following as officers:

President ..... Howard Wainio
Vice President ..... Orris Basinger
Sec'y-Treas. ..... Kathryn Beck
Student Council ..... Norma Conrad
Eugene Smith
Reporter ..... Joan Hostetler

In October the Sophomores gave us a party which we returned in March. Marvin Brueck, Orris Basinger, Ross Mosier, and Delbert Rock represented us in athletics. Many others were in music and other activities.

After three months of vacation we began our Sophomore year at S. H. S. Forty-two pupils were enrolled, with Mrs. Murray as our sponsor. We chose scarlet and white as our class colors and ordered our sweaters. The same boys were on the athletic squads.

In October we revived the tradition of Freshman initiation when we gave them a party. Later we had a hayride and weiner roast at Orr Park. The Freshmen gave us a party in May.

Our Sophomore officers were:

President ..... Vincent Besancon
Vice President ..... Gerald Miller
Sec'y-Treas. .....Jean Snyder
Sergeant-at-Arms ..... Ross Mosier
Student Council ..... Norma Conrad
Eugene Smith
Reporter ..... Joann Hostetler

After spending the summer in various ways, the thirty-seven students still remaining in the class of '48 re-entered the halls of learning as Juniors. Mr. Tschantz was our sponsor, with the following officers:

President ..... Marvin Brueck
Sec'y-Treas. ..... Jean Snyder
Sergeant-at-Arms ..... Juanita Limbacher
Student Council ..... Juanita Limbacher
Eugene Smith
Reporter ..... Donna Walton

Our class sweaters, scarlet with white emblems, arrived in the fall. Our class rings arrived in April.

The class play, "The Skeleton Walks," was presented on April 15. Mrs. Fair directed the cast of Norma Conrad, Kathryn Beck, Dorothy McAnaney, Juanita Limbacher, Lillian Walters, Vivian Singer, Orris Basinger, Marvin Brueck, Eugene Smith, and Dwight Harrison.

The same boys who had been representing us in athletics did so for the third year.

We held the annual Junior-Senior Banquet on May 1, 1947, at the Smithville Inn.

At last September 2, 1947 arrived and we were Seniors. Thirty-five boys and girls remained for Mr. Tschantz to sponsor.

We got down to work to raise money for our depleted treasury and elected the following as our last officers:

President ..... Orris Basinger
Vice President ..... Marvin Brueck
Sec'y-Teas. ..... Jean Snyder
Sergeant-at-Arms ..... Vincent Besancon
Student Council ..... Norma Conrad
Eugene Smith
Reporter ..... Dolores Marthey
Social Chairmen ..... Gerald Miller
Joann Hostetler

We sold Christmas cards and refreshments at basketball games to raise money for our trip to Washington, D. C.

On November 21, we gave our class party, "Bachelor's Wife", with Mrs. Murray as director. The cast consisted of Eugene Smith, Marvin Brueck, Orris Basinger, Lillian Walters, Juanita Limbacher, Dorothy McAnaney, Ross Mosier, Ruth Haley, and Norma Conrad.

Orris Basinger, Ross Mosier, and Delbert Rock were still in athletics. Many other students participated in other extra-curricular activities.

Our last days at S.H.S. were busy ones. We gave our Senior Assembly on May 19. Rev. Grisso delivered the Baccalaureate sermon. On May 25, at 8:00 P.M. the class of 1948 graduated. Mr. Lewis C. Turner, M.A. delivered the graduation address.

On May 26, we left for Washington, returning on the 30th, for our new lives as adults.

—By Patricia Blosser

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Cass of 1948, of Smithville High School, in the Village of Smithville, County of Wayne, State of Ohio, being of sound mind, memory, and understanding, do hereby make this, our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To our Superintendent, Mr. Burkholder, we bequeath the relief that we have finally graduated. We have spent four unforgettable years together. Any great deeds or achievements that our future contains will be the result of his example and counsel.

To our Principal, Mr. Berkey, we leave, in trust, our sense of humor. Without it, school life would have been painful.

To our teachers, the facuty of Smithville High School, we give our kindest regards, entire store of knowledge and any other information which we have picked up during the past four years.

To our Janitors, we leave our worn out notebooks, pencil stubs, and all other miscellaneous articles, to be used as they see fit.

To the Juniors, we leave our abundant supply of brains, because they will need some in the future.

To the Sophomores, we will our ability to cooperate and our teamwork so that they can get along with the Juniors.

To the Freshmen, we leave the rest of our finer qualities and the fine example which we have set for them.

To the Eighth Grade, we leave four long but happy years of school life and hope they may be used to the best advantage.

ARTICLE II

All our property, real or personal, we bequeath in the following manner:

I, Orris Basinger, will my ability to stay on my feet while playing basketball to Tom Bowman, who can't even stay on his own.

I, Kathryn Beck, will my successful year as Editor of the Mosaic to Marie Eby.

I, Vincent Besancon, will my lazy days and lively nights to Willie Meyers.

I, Patty Blosser, will my ability to keep from chasing the boys to Janice Hollinger.

I, Marvin Brueck, will my "well behaved" manners to Danny Sauders, who could use them to good advantage.

I, Norma Conrad, will my cheerful smile to Tom Miller.

I, Warren Conrad, will my ability to cut up in class and get away with it to Ronnie Fike, who hasn't yet learned the technique.

I, Maurice Curie, will my man-y muscles to Danny Berkey.

I, Ruth Gordon, will my broad shoulders to Marlene Roth.

I, Dick Grove, will my abiiity to get away with things by influencing the mayor to Doyle Mumaw.

I, Ruth Haley, will my brains to Lorna Begert, who will need them if she is ever to become a Senior.

CLASS WILL (Continued)

I, Dwight Harrison, will my ability to keep my car in the garage more than on the road to Stan Amstutz.

I, Donna Hartzler, will my overflowing giggles to Janet Audet.

I, John Holderman, will my personaity and ability to get along with everyone to Earl Weiser, who can't even get along with the teachers.

I, Joann Hostettler, will my ability to remain seated in study hall to Virginia Mosier.

I, Don Hughes, will my happy-go-lucky nature (lucky when I go and happy when I get back) to Bill Beeler.

I, Doris Jensen, will my ability to hook 'em and hold 'em to my sister, Corrine.

I, Juanita Limbacher, will my size four shoes to June Rudy.

I, Dolores Marthey, will my friendly attitude to Twila Wiles.

I, Dorothy McAnaney, will my monkey-shines to Margaret Marthey.

I, Gerald Miller, will my crooning tenor voice to Albert Green.

I, Glenn Moore, will my ability to play guitar and sing to Aylana Fetter.

I, Ross Mosier, will my ability to "act" like I hate the women to Jim Burkholder.

I, Bill Olsen, will my mischievious grin to Dick Marthey.

I, Sue Portwood, will my ablity to have a date every night to "Louie" Walters.

I, Delbert Rock, will my real he-man qualities to Donnie Mosier.

I, Dorothy Rufner, will my ability to tell a good joke any time or place to Alice Schrock.

I, Adrian Shamp, will my light, curly hair to Vernie Sinclair.

I, Mike Smith, will my blue eyes, curley hair, and convertible to James Troyer.

I, Jean Snyder, will my ability to be secretary and treasurer of the Senior Class and still be able to smile to some ambitious Junior.

I, Lillian Walters, will my ability to drive safely to Ellen Donaldson.

I, Opal Weiser, will my quiet peaceful ways to Mildred Fleming.

I, Pat Winkler, will the air castles that I build in study hall to Anna Belle Conrad.

I, Dale Zimmerman, will my deep voice to any member of next year's chorus to keep it going.

I, Mae Zook, will my ambition to work hard to Ellamae Geiser.

Finally, we do hereby name and appoint as sole executor of this, our last will and testament, our class advisor, Mr. Stanley I. Tschantz.

In Witness Whereof, we, the Class of 1948, of Smithville High School, have set our hand and seal on this twenty-fifth day of May in the year nineteen hundred and forty-eight.

—Sue Portwood, Lillian Walters, Mike Smith, Gerald Miller

CLASS PROPHECY

It was on such a night as this, ten eventful years ago, that the Class of 1948 graduated from Smithville High School. Let us see where their journey of life has led the members of that graduating class.

Let us start with the president of that class. Orris Basinger is now head coach at Smithville. As we look at his record we find that his teams have been most successful.

We find a few of the class have married. Juanita Limbacher has finally settled down and married engineer, Marvie Brueck. Mrs. Grant Carr, nee Kathryn Beck, is a happy wife and mother of twins. Sue Portwood has continued her singing career after interrupting it to marry Whitey Begert. Doris Jensen married her old boy-friend and is living in one of Smithville's newest penthouses. After Donna Hartzler married Harry Martin, they moved to Arkansas and are making a profitable business raising razorbacks.

Mike Smith has established a new chain of Super Atomic service stations which are known from coast to coast. He has hired John Holderman as the manager of the Smithville branch.

The famous "Bake It While You Wait" pastry shop, run by Warren Conrad, supplies many restaurants and hotels. Among the latter is Smithville's new Statler Hotel in which Vince Besancon is head waiter. The building was designed by Dick Grove and built by the Harrison and Curie Construction Company.

Gerald Miller is a dancing instructor at the Ohio Institute of Musical Jazz. He has perfected a new dance step called the "Drag Foot Dip" which has revolutionized dancing. Norma Conrad is his receptionist.

The Purple Parrot night club which recently opened under the management of Dale Zimmerman and Bill Olsen employs Ruth Gordon as hat check girl. Pat Winkler is currently featured as the vocalist.

For the New Look in dresses and gowns go to the May Co. and have Joanne Hostetler design them and Ruth Haley model them for you. Opal Weiser has attained the position as head buyer for the infants' wear department there.

From all reports the Get-a-Date-Quick Escort Bureau, established by Adrain Shamp, is doing a thriving business. If any ill effects are suffered by any of the customers, they are sent to the hospital at Paradise, where Dolores Marthey is head supervisor and Mae Zook is her capable assistant.

The title of "The Strongest Man in the World" is now held by Ross Mosier. His strength has put Charles Atlas to shame. At the moment Ross is touring the country with his press agent Glenn Moore.

Dorothy Rufener now owns and operates her own beauty salon. Her motto is, "A wave in the hair is worth two in the ocean." Just a few doors from this shop is Delbert Rock's diaper service which is very popular with the young mothers of Smithville and surrounding areas.

Patricia Blosser is taking post graduate work at Alabama to secure her masters degree in romance languages. Lillian Walters stopped off to see her on one of her recent trips. Lillian is one of the top-flight artists in the country. She returned to this country a few years ago after extensive study on the continent.

If your wife needs to be shadowed or your car stolen, see Don Hughes, the "private eye" of Wayne County.

Jean Snyder works in a publishing house reading manuscripts. It was largely through her efforts that Dorothy McAnaney's first book was published. The succeeding books needed no help as they were "best sellers".

This is the conclusion of our summary of the Class of 1948. Where these people will be in another ten years only time can tell. —Jean Snyder and Dorothy McAnaney

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

We, the Class of "49", began our Junior year on September 2, 1947, feeling very dignified with our new title, "Upperclassmen."

Our advisor was Mrs. Condry and our enrollment was 47 at the beginning of the year. During the year five students left and four new members joined the class.

We received our class sweaters on September 5, 1947, and our rings were expected shortly before the end of the school year.

The Juniors were unusally well represented in athletics. Those who were chosen on the Varsity squad in basketball were Stan Amstutz, Dick Wainio, Jim Walters, Jim Beichler, Bill Shafrath, and Bob Beichler.

Stan Amstutz, Jim Beichler, Dick Wainio, and Jim Walters were also on the baseball team.

Two of our members, Marie Eby and Aylana Fetter, received superior and excellent ratings, respectively, at a music contest. This entitled Marie to meet state competition at Columbus. Aylana also played the leading feminine role, "Margot", in the operetta.

Janice Hollinger and Dorothy Hostettler both won bronze metals in the annual "Prince of Peace" contest.

The class play, "Drums of Death", was presented on April 9. Mrs. Fair directed it and the cast was as follows: Janice Hollinger, Geneva Hartzler, Marian Bishop, Margaret Meyer, Aylana Fetter, Dick Wainio, Stan Amstutz, Robert Baab, and Owen Shoup.

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held on May 8, at the Smithville Inn. A good time was had by everyone. —Margaret Meyer

Second Row: Moore, Conrad, Smedley, Smucker, Singer, Hostetler, Fetter, Bowman, Snure, Amstutz, Phillips, Mr. Eby.

Third Row: Bowman, Hartzler, Burkholder, Beaverson, Zimmerly, Meyer, Baab, Nettleton, Moomaw, Sutherland.

During the past year our band was directed by our music instructor, Mr. Eby. There were not so many opportunities to appear in public performances but we did practice regularly and responded when we were called upon.

Although the band has not been neglected some new instruments are greatly needed. This would not only add to our performance, but would make the band a more attractive organization for the students to join.

Basketball Lettermen

ORRIS BASINGER DICK WAINIO STAN AMSTUTZ

JIM BEICHLER DELBERT ROCK ROSS MOSIER

This year's varsity squad lacked both size and experience. They tried to overcome these handicaps with determination and spirit. The result was a season much more successful than the most optimistic fans anticipated. Led by Captain Basinger, they played every game to the best of their ability and by the end of the season they were regarded as a dangerous ball team. The loss of Marvin Brueck through a knee injury, was a severe blow to the team. He had been one of their best players for two years and was looking forward to another great season.

Front Row: Bishop, Murphy, Hahn, Schrock, Cardinal, Coach Berkey.

Second Row: Mgr. Bowman, Olinger, J. Burkholder, Burkey, T. Burkholder, Bland, Holderman, Manager.

Reserve Basketball Squad

The reserve basketball squad was composed entirely of underclassmen. Their won and lost record is not considered as important as their ability and desire to develop into varsity players in the years to come. Their attitude and progress is watched carefully during their time on the reserve squad so that the right ones may be moved on to the varsity squad when the proper time comes.

SPRING SPORTS

Baseball

The baseball squad, like the basketball squad, had to be completely rebuilt. Six regulars from the previous years were missing when practice started in the fall. However the players went right to work and won five out of twelve games. With the benefit of this experience their spring schedule was more successful. Lettermen for the year were: Ross Mosier, Orris Basinger, Marvin Brueck, Dale Zimmerman, Dwight Harrison, Jim Beichler, Dick Wainio, Stan Amstutz, Wilbur Hahn, Arthur Schrock, and Dave Bishop.

TRACK

Our track team participated in three meets this spring. Our mile relay team after winning in the county meet participated in the Sectional meet at Baldwin-Wallace College where they placed fifth. Gerald Miller was undefeated in the 440 yard dash in all three meets. Other lettermen in addition to Gerald were: Vic Plessinger, Robert Baab, and Ross Mosier.

Front Row: Fike, Hahn, Beichler, Carney, Schrock, Coach Farver.

Second Row: Mgr. Sauders, Marthey, Blough, Swisher, Stuckey, Conrad.

Eighth Grade Basketball

Our Eighth grade basketball team coached by Mr. Farver had one of the most successful seasons in the history of the school. They lost only three games during the entire season and two of these were overtime games. All three losses were to Fredericksburg, the County champions.

CHEERLEADERS

These three Senior girls were elected cheerleaders of Smithville High School just before the basketball season started. Their popularity with the student body and their diligent effort to provide good cheering at the games was appreciated by everyone.

They will have to be replaced next year and it is hoped that the ones who are selected to replace them will continue the good work that these three girls started.

Since there are no interscholastic athletics for the girls many of them are interested in cheerleading as an expression of athletic interest.
